DETAILED ACTION

Currently, Claims 1-10 are pending. Claims 1-5 are examined on the merits.

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Group I (Claims 1-5) in the reply filed on June 6, 2008 is acknowledged.

Claims 6-10 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected group, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on June 6, 2008.

Specification

The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because an abstract needs to be in one paragraph. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Objections

Claim 3 is objected to because of the following informalities: the word "claim" is missing after the word "against." Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being anticipated by Gonzales et al. (2003, Asian J Androl, 5, 349-352).

Gonzales et al. teaches alcoholic extract of Lepidium meyenii (Maca), where 5% of Maca alcoholic extract was given by oral route (Abstract). The dried and powdered root of Lepidium meyenii (Maca), 14.5 g was extracted with 1500 mL absolute ethanol or 100% ethanol for 72 h at room temperature (25°C) (page 349, Materials and Methods, 2.2 Extraction). The dry extract 2.4 g to 4.8 g, were dissolved separately in 100 mL of 5% ethanol with resultant solutions of 24 mg/mL and 48 mg/mL (page 350, Material and Methods, 2.2 Extraction).

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-5 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 7, 15 of copending Application No. 10/590512. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claims are drawn to maca extraction with ethanol at 20 to 75 degree Celsius.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Conclusion

No claim is allowed.
